Study Abroad
Limited Power of Attorney Instructions

---

These instructions apply to students participating in all types of study abroad and international internship programs.

NCCU Office of International Affairs (OIA) encourages you to consider identifying someone to serve as your limited financial Power of Attorney (POA) during the time you are abroad. This is particularly important if you will have financial aid disbursed to you while you are abroad and you do not have direct deposit on your student account. A POA is in effect someone who can handle your financial affairs, to a limited extent, during your absence. Typical reasons for having a POA include: picking up and endorsing checks in your absence (otherwise checks would need to be mailed overseas for your signature) and signing of loan promissory notes. A sample POA form is attached for your use and you can make as many copies as you need. This form will allow your POA to endorse federal educational financial aid checks or North Carolina Central University checks in your name and to deposit them for you and to sign promissory notes in your name.

Here are the instructions for identifying a POA:

1. Ask someone you trust to agree to serve as your POA. This is a decision you should give considerable thought to---this person effectively will have the power of your checkbook! Most POA's are family members, although it may also be a friend. It is often preferable to have your POA in North Carolina, if possible. Special note: university faculty and staff cannot serve as your POA.
2. Fill out the POA form yourself and take it to a Notary Public to be notarized. Do not sign it until you are in front of the Notary Public---your signature on the POA form must be witnessed by a Notary. There is usually no charge for this. It is suggested that you have 4 forms notarized. Most banks and post offices as well as some FedEx and UPS stores provide notary services. You can find a Notary Public near you in the Yellow Pages.
3. Leave a POA form with:
  - 1) Your POA
  - 2) NCCU OIA Study Abroad Coordinator
  - 3) Student Accounting and/or Office of Scholarships and Student Aid
  - 4) Your personal records that you take abroad
