CONVOCATION KEYNOTE SPEAKER

REGGIE MCCRIMMON, '13

When Reggie McCrimmon graduated from North Carolina Central University in May 2013, he was already on the path to becoming a servant-leader, motivated by “purpose, passion, profit and helping the poor.”

A Fayetteville, N.C., native, McCrimmon served two years as president of the Student Government Association and interned with the late U.S. Sen. Kay Hagan and former N.C. Gov. Beverly Purdue while enrolled as an undergraduate student earning a Bachelor of Science in political science.

After graduation, he headed to Washington D.C., first to take a job as a special assistant to U.S. Rep. G.K. Butterfield, head of the Congressional Black Caucus, and later serving as the caucus’s director of member services and external affairs. He worked on day-to-day issues for the representative and the caucus, including overseeing special events, projects and digital communications.

In July 2017, McCrimmon returned to North Carolina to work for HQ Raleigh, an entrepreneurship and innovation community, where he created partnerships and supported inclusion and diversity issues, as well as served as a liaison to NCCU and other historically black colleges and universities.

In 2018, he became outreach associate for the Center for Responsible Living in Durham fighting predatory finance practices and served as senior advisor to IMPACT Strategies, a political advocacy firm.

In August 2017, he co-founded R. Alexander & Co., a public affairs and management consulting firm. In October 2019, he assumed the role of senior public policy associate with the social media giant Twitter, where he applies his excellent technical and personal skills to manage projects that have an impact on the world.

According to fellow Eagle Carmelo Montalvo, '13, McCrimmon’s trajectory was clear from the pair’s first meeting, describing his demeanor as someone who displays “poise and conviction in everything ... His ability to harness the inner talents of the people around him is truly inspiring.”

The Alma Mater

DEAR OLD N.C.C.

Annie D. Shepard
Harry T. Burleigh

The sloping hills, the verdant green,
The lovely blossoms' beauteous sheen
Surround our college proud and gay
Where wave our colors, Maroon and Gray
What matters it how far we roam,
Our thoughts will oft return to home
And hearts will e'er be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.

REFRAIN:
Then Rah! Rah! Rah! for our colors so gay,
Dear Old N.C.C.'s Maroon and Gray;
Thy Sons and Daughters will honor thee,
Dear Old N.C.C.

II
We've gathered here to fit our lives
As from the darkness light revives
So let us hail, both night and day
Our glorious colors, Maroon and Gray.
We'll ever love and honor thee,
For thou hast taught us loyalty.
Then let our watchword "Service" be
To Alma Mater, N.C.C.

III
You send us forth with hearts of love
So like a blessing from above,
And from the path we'll never stray.
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and Gray
We'll work and fight, we'll win our way.
When duty calls, we shall obey.
And may we e'er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.
