

Interest Charges On Delinquent Accounts

Effective July 1, 2019, in accordance with State of North Carolina General Statute 147-86.23, an annual interest charge of 5% will be applied to all unpaid past due balances with a portion of the interest charge being applied monthly. Interest charges are based on the prevailing North Carolina Department of Revenue rate. Rates are subject to change every six months.