RESIDENTIAL LIFE AND DINING

New first time students who submit their completed application by June 30 are guaranteed housing. A new first time student is any student who has twenty-nine (29) or less college/university credit hours from NCCU and who did not complete any college credit hours after graduating from high school at a college/university other than NCCU. For your application to be complete, the $150 nonrefundable housing administrative fee must be paid in full and should be paid when completing the online application. Once we have received your completed application you will receive a confirmation notice. The housing selection process will begin on May 1. During this time, freshmen who have competed their housing application can select their room assignment.

Freshmen may choose from the following residence halls:
- Eagleson
- McLean
- Richmond
- New Res II
- Rush
- Annie Day

Welcome to your home away from home. From Move In Day, Eaglefest, to Homecoming and Spring Fling, students here feel like they’re part of a large, nurturing, and supportive family.

Experience life at NC Central. Join one of our over 100 student run organizations ranging from National Pan Hellenic sororities and fraternities to political and social action groups. Take part in activities from our Student Affairs Division, including programs from the Women’s Center, Men’s Achievement Center, Diversity and Inclusion, the Career Center, and many more.

There are plenty of places to find your home here at NCCU, including the award winning NCCU Jazz Ensemble, the NCCU Sound Machine, Campus Echo Newspaper, WNCU, the campus NPR and Jazz Radio station and the NCCU Theatre Department productions.

While our students work hard in the classroom, they also play hard on the field and the court. Committing themselves to thriving both academically as well as competitively in their sport, they have earned a reputation as a true force to be reckoned with.

North Carolina Central University’s athletics programs have enjoyed regional and national recognition for years. Fifteen men’s and women’s sports teams participate in National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) competition at the Division I level (Football Championship Subdivision) as members of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC).
