Adding the Purpose of the Program-Program Mission

I. Introduction
This guide includes two sections: General Considerations and Specific Instructions. While the latter provides a step-by-step procedure of how to upload the Purpose of the Program – Program Mission into Taskstream, the former offers the contact information and details of the individuals involved in the management of Title III activities and the System, respectively.

II. General Considerations
Table 1, Reporting Title III Activities into Taskstream, specifies the individuals to contact and the assigned responsibilities should you have questions about how to upload the Purpose of the Program into NCCU’s newly adopted assessment management system, Taskstream.
