ACCOMMODATION FOR RELIGIOUS PRACTICE

The University holiday schedule includes Good Friday and Christmas as religious holidays. However, the diverse nature of the University environment requires sensitivity to employee religious practices and beliefs that do not coincide with the holidays provided via this schedule. As a result, University policy allows employees to observe major holidays that are relevant to their customs or religious beliefs. Employees with a desire for an exchange accommodation for a major holiday are required to submit a request to their supervisor for review and approval.
