

Rising juniors through graduating seniors
APPLY NOW to the
 North Carolina Central University
 Research Institute for Scholars of Equity

Research Institute for Scholars of Equity (RISE) is a yearlong fellowship program that prepares a new generation of scholars committed to addressing issues of social equity. Fellows will conduct rigorous, high-quality research in education that will improve the schooling experiences and academic attainment of pre-kindergarten through university-level African American and Latino students. Fellows will be mentored by stellar faculty and will be prepared to pursue doctoral education.

IMPORTANT DATES:

	Deadline April 1, 2024
APR 1	Final receipt of applications at 11:59 p.m
Program Dates
MAY 30, 2024 - MAY 29, 2025

ELIGIBILITY

Eligible applicants are college rising juniors through graduating seniors who are full-time students in any academic discipline and interested in the field of education. Underrepresented minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

APPLICANTS MUST:

- ☐ Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident;
- ☐ Have a minimum 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale);
- ☐ Have completed 3 or more credit hours of coursework in a social science (e.g. sociology, psychology, political science);
- ☐ Have written a literature review or research paper and be interested in pursuing doctoral studies; and
- ☐ Submit a completed application.

BENEFITS

- ☐ Develop research skills during an eight-week (58 days) summer research institute, followed by a yearlong faculty mentor experience.
- ☐ Prepare for the GRE and work on applications to doctoral programs.
- ☐ Travel to NCCU for the summer (travel, campus housing, and a meal plan are included in the RISE fellowship).
- ☐ Receive a $6,000 stipend annually ($3,000 for the summer, $3,000 during the following academic year).
- ☐ Have an opportunity to publish research and make conference presentations with outstanding faculty.
