Honors Convocation for Academic Achievement

James E. Shepard, Founder

FRIDAY, APRIL 4, 2025

10 A.M.

McDOUGALD-McLENDON ARENA

DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

HONORS RECOGNITION

North Carolina Central University recognizes students with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0. The University recognizes students in a number of categories, from the Chancellor's Award recipients — the university's top honors — to deans' lists and departmental academic honors. In addition, students are recognized for distinctions in scholarly groups, honor societies and scholarships. The groups, societies and scholarships listed in this convocation program are those submitted by deans, chairs and directors of each respective academic unit.

CONVOCATION KEYNOTE SPEAKER

AJAMU DILLAHUNT-HOLLOWAY '19

Born and raised in Southeast Raleigh, Ajamu Dillahunt-Holloway, Ph.D., is proud to be an assistant professor of African American history and public history at NC State University. His research is on twentieth century African American history with a focus on the U.S. South, labor, environmental justice and the Black freedom struggle. At present, he is the co-leader of The Communiversity, a community-based archive and educational institution that houses the records of Black Workers for Justice. He is also a board member of the Interreligious Foundation of Community Organizations, the North Carolina Environmental Justice Network and Democracy North Carolina. In 2023, Dillahunt-Holloway was appointed to the Historic Resources and Museums Advisory Board of the City of Raleigh.

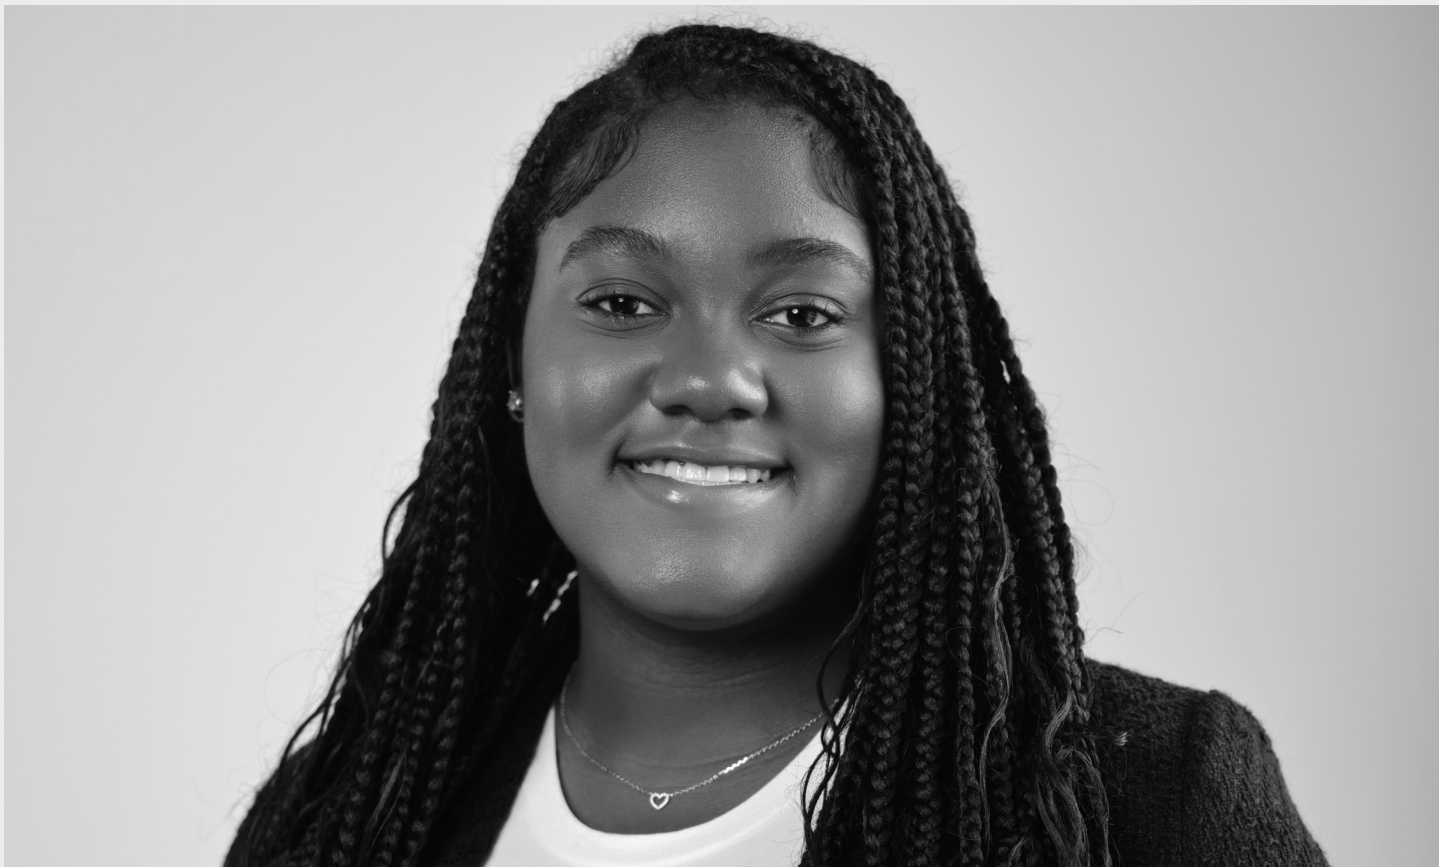

Dillahunt-Holloway has served as an interinstitutional scholar for diversity and inclusion in the department of history at East Carolina University, an assistant editor with the award-winning blog Black Perspectives, an intern with the SNCC Digital Gateway Project at Duke University, a research assistant for Charlie Cobb, a book acquisition student worker at Duke University Press and an editorial assistant for The Journal of African American History, the oldest and leading scholarly journal in its field.

A 2019 graduate of North Carolina Central University, Dillahunt-Holloway earned bachelor degrees in both history and political science. While a student at NCCU, he was a part of the Aspiring Eagles Academy and several community organizations. He also traveled with the NCCU School of Law to Palestine, South Africa and Cuba to present research. In 2018, he created a petition on Change.org and was instrumental in the student-led efforts to rename the Clyde R. Hoey Administration Building to what is now known as the James E. Shepard Administration Building.

Dillahunt-Holloway is a Spring 2017 initiate of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc. He earned his Ph.D. in history from Michigan State University in 2023.

CHANCELLOR'S AWARD FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

TAYA DAVIS '25

Taya Davis is a senior honors student studying biology at North Carolina Central University (NCCU).

Davis is the daughter of Cornelius and Tonia Davis of Alpharetta, Georgia. She graduated from Denmark High School in 2021. She earned a Cheatham-White Scholarship, NCCU's most prestigious fully-funded merit award.

Davis has held leadership roles on and off campus. She has served as the president of the Honors Student Council, president of Science African American Majors Evolving (S.A.A.M.E.), a member of the Biology Society, director of academic affairs for the Student Government Association, director of community engagement for the Student Government Association and an American Heart Association Scholar.

In 2023-24, Davis was selected as a HBCU White House Scholar, where she spent a week in Washington, D.C. participating in leadership growth, professional development, networking and mentorship.

Davis engaged in several research experiences while at NCCU. She has been an intern at the Duke University Superfund Research Center, Myriad Genetics and the NCCU Julius L. Chambers Biomedical and Biotechnology Research Institute (BRITE).

Davis believes in sharing her talents with others. She has designed STEM and artistic activities at the Boys and Girls Club of Durham, volunteered at various community events with MAAME, Inc., which provides prenatal and postpartum care for low-income mothers, and has participated in other service activities such as food and clothing drives and campus clean-ups.

Upon graduation in May 2025, Davis will earn patient care hours in preparation for attending physician assistant school, where she plans to specialize in pediatrics.

The Alma Mater

DEAR OLD N.C.C.

Annie D. Shepard

Harry T. Burleigh

The sloping hills, the verdant green,
The lovely blossoms' beauteous sheen
Surround our college proud and gay
Where wave our colors, Maroon and Gray
What matters it how far we roam,
Our thoughts will oft return to home
And hearts will e'er be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.

REFRAIN:

Then Rah! Rah! Rah! for our colors so gay,
Dear Old N.C.C.'s Maroon and Gray;
Thy Sons and Daughters will honor thee,
Dear Old N.C.C.

II

We've gathered here to fit our lives
As from the darkness light revives
So let us hail, both night and day
Our glorious colors, Maroon and Gray.
We'll ever love and honor thee,
For thou hast taught us loyalty.
Then let our watchword "Service" be
To Alma Mater, N.C.C.

III

You send us forth with hearts of love
So like a blessing from above,
And from the path we'll never stray.
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and Gray
We'll work and fight, we'll win our way.
When duty calls, we shall obey.
And may we e'er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.
